

RPI Method For Leagues Other Than High School Or College.

If you would like your league to rate teams based on the RPI (Ratings Percentage Index) method then, contact us at: laf@laxpower.com. You will need to provide us with the following data: League Names; Team Names in each league; Game Dates; Opponents and Scores. The data can be sent as 'Excel' files or plain text in tabular form.

The results below illustrate the RPI based on its three components. The schedule and scores are also listed below it.

RPI is based on three components:

the first is the won-loss record of the team the second is the won-loss record (averaged) for the teams opponents.

the third is the won-loss record (averaged) of the opponents opponents.

Note that the pct. for component 2 and 3 is not computed by dividing total w/(w+l) but rather by averaging each opponents percentage

The components are weighted as 0.25, 0.50 and 0.25 respectively
